OFFERS REWARD FOR DOG

First National Bank "Possum Dog" Has Disappeared From Home.

For the first time in weeks, the 'possum hunters" at the First National bank did not hunt Saturday dght. And there are no more hunts in prespect, for "Drum," the champion possum dog, with 89 possums to his credit, has disappeared. His owner, Fred Voorhies, has advertised repeatedly, but without result. The dog, he thinks, either is in the possession of someone who does not intend to return it or is wandering the streets of Tulsa.

and claim the reward.

Mr. Voorhies has not given up hope of eventually finding the dog and has offered a reward in the hope that some boy in need of Christmas money will find the dog and return it to him. He can be found in the basement of the First National bank building or reached by phone at Cedar 462. The dog was being kept at a house in the 400 block on South Guthrie and is described as follows: Black hound about 4 years old, red less, white feet, while sheet, white the on tail right ear notched. When lost had on a narrow leather collar. on a narrow leather collar.
